

PRIVACY NOTICE (A)

* If you register from within the European Economic Area (EEA), see PRIVACY NOTICE (B) below.

* The EEA includes the following 31 countries:

Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom (England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland), Liechtenstein, Iceland, and Norway

Handling of personal information

The Privacy Notice (A) is based on the Nikon Group Privacy Protection Statement (https://www.nikon.com/privacy/privacy_policy.htm) and applies to all personal data that Nikon Corporation (referred to below as "Nikon") processes concerning Nikon Photo Contest under Act on the Protection of Personal Information and related laws and regulations of Japan. When submitting a work to the Contest, the entrant must fill out the entry form with accurate personal information and then submit it to the organizer. The provision of personal information is left to the sole discretion of the entrant. Note that the organizer will not accept entries in cases where the necessary personal information is not provided.

Purposes of use

We use personal information provided to us to the extent necessary for the purposes below.

The purposes of use in relation to entrants are as follows:

- > Notification concerning matters related to the Contest
- > Inquiries to entrants related to submitted works
- > Creating statistical data
- > Sending questionnaires related to the Contest

Personal information is also used in relation to winners for the following purposes:

- > Notifying winners that they have won or telling them about the award ceremony
- > Announcing winning works
- > Sending prizes
- > Communication with winners regarding requests to create contents

In addition, we sometimes refer to voluntarily provided questionnaire responses when developing products.

Data storage

Please note that, regardless of the entrant's country of residence, the organizer reserves the right to store data provided upon entry (the image data of works and personal information) in Japan or another country.

The names of winners might be used for websites, printed materials, or other materials related to the Contest when introducing winning works. In addition, names might be used for identity verification when someone of the entrants wishes to change their address or otherwise update their personal data. The Nikon Photo Contest Office will handle the above notifications and inquiries.

Disclosure to third parties

The organizer will provide personal data to judges and third parties involved in running the Contest to the extent necessary to run the Contest.

When providing personal data in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the organizer will execute contracts with the judges and third parties that contain provisions of confidentiality, or otherwise ensure that they manage personal data appropriately.

Contact information for inquiries related to personal information (including entry-related inquiries)

October 18, 2018 to December 31, 2019

Nikon Photo Contest Office Inquiries Desk

Update of personal information, etc.

If it is necessary to update personal information you have provided, please check the instructions on the entry form. If this is not enough to resolve the issue, please contact the Inquiries Desk above.

Security of personal data

We strive to ensure the security of personal data provided on the internet by using the Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) or an equivalent protocol to prevent unauthorized access.

Disposal and deletion of personal data

The organizer will take procedures to dispose of or delete provided personal data (entry forms, the data of submitted works, and other digitized personal data related to the Contest) on December 31, 2019 (the "disposal date") except for the personal data related to winners of the Contest or entrants whose submitted works will be used for purposes other than Contest promotion ("winners, etc.") and the personal information of entrants who wish to be notified by email the next Contest. Due to the above, please note that, except for winners, etc., it will no longer be possible to update or refer for the personal data of entrants as of the disposal date.

PRIVACY NOTICE (B) FOR THE NIKON PHOTO CONTEST

In this privacy notice we explain how we collect and use your personal data for the Nikon Photo Contest.

Nikon respects privacy and acknowledges that processing personal data in a lawful and proper manner is an important social responsibility and declares that it will strive to protect personal data. This privacy notice is part of Nikon's Group Privacy Protection Statement <url:

www.nikon.co.jp/main/eng/privacy_policy.htm> and applies to personal data that we process of participants in the context of the Nikon Photo Contest (hereafter “you”). In this privacy notice, we explain which personal data we collect and how we use these data. Therefore, we encourage you to read this notice carefully.

1. Who we are

We are Nikon Corporation, Shinagawa Intercity Tower C, 2-15-3, Konan, Minato-ku, Tokyo, 108-6290, Japan. We are responsible for the collection and use of your personal data described in this privacy notice.

We have determined our respective responsibilities for compliance with the obligations under applicable privacy legislation for processing your personal data in relation to our global processing activities by means of an arrangement between us. In summary, we have arranged that if you want to exercise your rights, such as your right to access, correct, erase, restrict, object or port personal data or to withdraw your consent, or if you have any questions about the processing of your personal data, you can contact us through the contact details in ‘Paragraph 9 Contact details for your privacy inquiries’ below. Nikon Group companies and Nikon Corporation will assist each other where necessary to ensure that you can exercise your rights and your questions will be handled.

2. What personal data we collect and what we do with your data

The Photo Contest is open to all persons eligible to participate and can be accessed in the manners described in the Nikon Contest Official Rules <url: <http://www.nikon-photocontest.com/en/entry/>>. The types of personal data we collect include: your name, email address, country, nationality, date of birth, gender (optional), occupation (optional), and your uploaded photo and its title, including an identifier to ensure that the file name of your photo is unique. We later request only to the winners to register mailing address, postal code, phone number and FAX number as additional personal data.

You are solely responsible for the content you share with us and we ask you to inform a person whose picture you use in the context of the Nikon Photo Contest, as described in this Privacy Notice.

Sensitive data

When uploading photos for the Nikon Photo Contest we may receive sensitive data from you in the form of a person’s picture. You are solely responsible for the content you share with us and you will provide notice about and obtain a person’s prior consent for the use of the person’s picture in the context of the Nikon Photo Contest as described in this Privacy Notice. In certain cases, a person’s picture could be considered “special categories of personal data” under applicable data protection laws. For example, pictures revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs or concerning health or concerning someone’s sex life or sexual orientation may qualify as special personal data. In such cases, you will have to formally obtain the person’s consent in writing, if the special data is not manifestly made public by the persons themselves. At the time of your application, Nikon deems the person’s consent in writing was formally obtained by the applicant and Nikon shall not be responsible in case of failure of the consent.

Purposes

Nikon uses your personal information for the execution of the Photo Contest as further described in the Nikon Photo Contest Entry Guidelines<url: <http://www.nikon-photocontest.com/en/entry/>>, for example to notify winners of the results, carry out promotion campaign during the Photo Contest, provide entrants with information about the contest, correspond with entrants about their submissions, announce the winning entries, generate general contest statistics, send out questionnaires about the contest and deliver prizes, and also for sending newsletters to announce next year's contest.

In addition, Nikon uses your personal information in your submitted photos, their titles and your name for advertisement purpose and social action program for enriching the general image-making culture on the occasions as stated in "Organizer's Rights" of Nikon Photo Contest Entry Guidelines.

Furthermore, we may use your submitted photos, their titles and name in any media for Nikon's business purposes, including for example in sales presentations, intranet websites, training materials, calendars, newsletters, posters, onsite photo galleries, recruitment materials, company brochures or other company publications, screensavers, mouse pads and/or other similar materials.

Please note that the personal data of the Contest award winners will be also used for arranging a trip to the award ceremony, for shipping a prize, for making media contents such as articles and interviews and for consideration for those contents.

Legal basis

Nikon processes your personal data and the person(s) in the picture to have you participate in the Nikon Photo Contest as necessary for our legitimate interests or the interests of a third party or on the basis of consent.

When we process your personal data for our legitimate interests or the interests of a third party, we will take reasonable measures to prevent unwarranted harm to you. Our legitimate interests are, for example, to communicate photos taking part in the Nikon Photo Contest and promote the competition. More information on the balancing tests we perform is available upon request. Where we process your personal data for our legitimate interests or the interests of a third party, you have the right to object at any time on grounds relating to your particular situation (please see 'Paragraph 7. Your rights' below).

You can withdraw your consent at any time by following the specific instructions in relation to the processing for which you provided your consent, by adjusting your setting (if available) or by reaching us through the contact details in 'Paragraph 9 Contact details for your privacy inquiries' below.

Where we process your personal data for a purpose other than that for which we collected it initially (and we rely on a legal basis other than consent or complying with legal obligations for this new purpose), we will ascertain whether processing for this new purpose is compatible with the purpose for which the personal data were initially collected. More information on this assessment is available upon request (please see 'Paragraph 7. Your rights below').

3. How we collect your data

The personal data we process is information that you knowingly provide to us directly. If you refuse to provide personal data that we require for the Nikon Photo Contest, we may not be able to have you participate in the competition.

4. Information sharing

We will process some of your personal data locally. However, as a global organization and competition, the Nikon Photo Contest can also be carried out (and business efficiencies achieved) by processing or consolidating information about you in specific or centralized databases and systems located at specific secured facilities worldwide. As a result, your information may be shared with other entities within the Nikon Group. However, each Nikon Group company and those other systems and databases will only collect, receive, use, share or otherwise process such personal data in accordance with applicable laws, this privacy notice and our Nikon Group Privacy Protection Statement <url: www.nikon.co.jp/main/eng/privacy_policy.htm>. Moreover, internally we maintain a strict access policy with regard to the processing of personal data. Only a limited group of authorized Nikon staff on a need to know basis will have access to your personal data.

As a rule, we do not share your personal data with anyone outside the Nikon Group, to judges and to third parties overseeing the contest, besides your competing photo, the title and its maker. The photo may be used in any media for Nikon's internal use and business purposes and may be accessed on a global level. As well as your photo, we may share your personal data with trusted third parties that perform business functions or provide services to us. All such third parties will be required to adequately safeguard your personal data, subject to agreements that correspond to the requirements of applicable laws. Your personal data may also be shared for investigations (e.g. disclosure to prevent crime or fraud, or to comply with a court order or legislation).

5. Security measures and data retention

Nikon will secure your personal data in accordance with our IT and security policies so that personal data are protected against unauthorized use, unauthorized access and wrongful modifications, loss or destruction. Your personal data will be stored no longer than is necessary for the purpose of your participation in the Nikon Photo Contest, compliance with legal and fiscal obligations and for solving any disputes. The specific data retention periods for the processing activities are in principle kept until the end of the year of the Nikon Photo Contest, except for the case that we keep your email address until the end of the next year of the Nikon Photo Contest upon your request to subscribe the notification email for the next Nikon Photo Contest, the case that your personal data and photo are stored for 5 years as a result of winning an award of the Contest, the case that some entrants personal data are stored for 3 years to be used for Nikon's business purposes, for example calendars, or the case that it is necessary to perform agreements with you or necessary for legal obligations.

Also please note that when we delete your personal data which we initially obtained at the time of your application upon your request to erase the data, we retain such information of the request email, and your personal data of your name and your email address, as a proof of the erasure after the deletion until we delete it together with other applicants' personal data at the end of the year of the Nikon Photo Contest

6. International transfers of personal data

Given the global nature of our company, your personal data may be transferred to Nikon entities and trusted third parties in countries outside the European Economic Area whose laws may not afford the same level of protection of your personal data. Where necessary, Nikon will ensure that adequate safeguards are in place to comply with the requirements for the international transfer of personal data under applicable privacy laws. For transfers of personal data outside the European Economic Area, Nikon will use Commission approved mechanisms, such as the Privacy Shield certification, and Standard Contractual Clauses as safeguards, such as the "(EU-)controller to (Non-EU/EEA-)controller" Decision 2004/915//EC (see Article 46 GDPR). If you wish to receive a copy of these safeguards, please contact us through the contact details in Paragraph 9. 'Contact details for you privacy inquiries' below.

7. Your rights

You can contact us (please Paragraph 9. 'Contact details for your privacy inquiries' below) to exercise any of the rights you are granted under applicable data protection laws, which includes (1) the right to access your data, (2) to rectify them, (3) to erase them, (4) to restrict the processing of your data, (5) the right to receiving a file of your personal data and (6) the right to object to the processing, and where we have asked for your consent, to withdraw this consent. These rights will be limited in some situations. We will, for example, deny your request for access when necessary to protect the rights and freedoms of other individuals or refuse to delete your personal data in case the processing of such data is necessary for compliance with legal obligations. The right to data portability, for example, does not apply in case the personal data was not provided by you or if we process the data not on the basis of your consent or for the performance of a contract.

When you would like to exercise your rights, please send your request to the contact details in Paragraph 9 'Contact details for your privacy inquiries' below. Please note that we may need you to provide additional information to confirm your identity. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with your local Supervisory Authority.

You can also contact us at if you have any questions, remarks or complaints in relation to this privacy notice.

7.1. Right to access

You may ask us whether or not we process any of your personal data and, if so, receive access to that data in the form of a copy. When complying with an access request, we will also provide you with additional information, such as the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned as well as any other information necessary for you to exercise the essence of this right.

7.2. Right to rectification

You have the right to have your data rectified in case of inaccuracy or incompleteness. Upon request, we will correct inaccurate personal data about you and, taking into account the purposes of the processing, complete incomplete personal data, which may include the provision of a supplementary statement.

7.3. Right to erasure

You also have the right to have your personal data erased, which means the deletion of your data by us and, where possible, any other controller to whom your data has previously been made public by us. Erasure of your personal data only finds place in certain cases, prescribed by law and listed under article 17 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This includes situations where your personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the initial purposes for which they were processed as well as situations where they were processed unlawfully. Due to the way we maintain certain services, it may take some time before backup copies are erased.

7.4. Right to restriction of processing

You have the right to obtain the restriction of the processing of your personal data, which means that we suspend the processing of your data for a certain period of time. Circumstances which may give rise to this right include situations where the accuracy of your personal data was contested but some time is needed for us to verify their (in)accuracy. This right does not prevent us from continue storing your personal data. We will inform you before the restriction is lifted.

7.5. Right to receive your file (data portability)

Your right to data portability entails that you may request us to provide you with your personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and to have such data transmitted directly to another controller, where technically feasible. Upon request and where this is technically feasible we will transmit your personal data directly to the other controller.

7.6. Right to object

You also have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which means you may request us to no longer process your personal data. This only applies in case the 'legitimate interests' ground (including profiling) constitutes the legal basis for processing (see par. 'Legal basis' above).

At any time and free of charge you can object to direct marketing purposes in case your personal data are processed for such purposes, which includes profiling purposes to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing. In case you exercise this right, we will no longer process your personal data for such purposes.

8. How we look after this policy

We have most recently updated this notice on 17 October 2018 and it replaces earlier versions. We will update this privacy notice from time to time and notify you of any substantive changes.
